

Released / News Media
May 27, 2005
RE: Staff Training

For Immediate Release

Tippecanoe County Court Services & Drug Court Announces Staff Attendance of the 23rd Annual Institute for Alcohol and Drug Studies.

Released to News Media June 15, 2006

Prepared and Submitted by Denise Horvath.

Nicholas DiCarlo, M.S., NCC, CADAC I, CSAMS, LMHC, and Court Services Evaluator, attended a weeklong conference which explored current etiological and research findings regarding the Treatment and Assessment of Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

Evansville, Indiana – May, 2006. While attending the 23rd Annual Institute for Alcohol and Drug Studies, Mr. DiCarlo participated in many sessions highlighting new information in the following areas and more:

- Addiction Treatment
- Assessment and Treatment of Co-Occurring Disorders
 - Date Rape Drugs
 - HIV and Addiction
- Women's Issues in Treatment

Court Services and Drug Court, both certified by the Indiana Judicial Center as Drug & Alcohol program providers for Tippecanoe County, regularly supports all staff in training and opportunities like these to enable our staff to better serve the clients and our community.

Mission Statement: Tippecanoe County Court Services as a liaison between the courts and clients, our goal is to provide quality services that will empower the client to improve the choices they make while functioning within their family and community.

Tippecanoe County Court Services

